

Black History Month

Black History Month is an effort by Canadians to honour the legacy and contributions of notable Black individuals. The 2024 theme for Black History Month is "Black Excellence: A Heritage to Celebrate; a Future to Build".

According to Stats Canada, the Black Community represents 3.5% of Canada's total population and 15.6% of the Canadian visible minority group.

Black folks' contributions to Canadian heritage dates as far back as the 1600s!

Student Mandatory Training Modules

Ace Acumen Academy is asking all first semester students to complete 3 training modules for the Winter 2024 semester. These modules will assist you, as a student, in understanding your responsibilities and rights as identified in College policies, and the institutional resources available to keep you safe.

Tutoring Services

Ace Acumen offers the Peer Tutoring Program for students seeking academic support. Tutors provide support with assignments, tests, quizzes, or even just improving or creating good study habits.

Tutoring sessions are available online or in-person. It can be one-on-one or in groups. Tutoring is always free, and we are willing to work with you to make you comfortable and fit your learning needs!

You can sign up for a tutoring session with the QR code, or by approaching any member of the Tutoring team – from the Tutoring Leads, and the tutors themselves.

Keep an eye out for Tutoring Booths and promotional activities on campus. The QR code below takes you directly to the Bookings site.

We all look forward to helping you!
